Charter School Laws

The initial authorizing contract term for a Community Choice School is years. A Community Choice School charter contract may be renewed for successive 5-year terms, although the authorizer may vary the term based on the performance, demonstrated capacities, and particular circumstances of each choice school. An authorizer may grant renewal with specific conditions for necessary improvement to a choice school. An initial charter for public charter schools must be granted for a term of 5 operating years, commencing on July 1 of the first school year the public charter school will operate. A public charter school charter may be renewed for successive 5-year terms, although the board of public education may vary the term based on the performance, demonstrated capacities, and particular circumstances of each public charter school. The board may grant renewal with specific conditions for necessary improvement to a public charter school.
